

What is the Friends of the Appalachian Reading Center?

The Friends of the Appalachian Reading Center exists to support the mission of the Center, which is to improve the reading skills of the people of Appalachia. The non-profit tutoring center is committed to helping struggling readers of every age and income level. No one is turned away.

The Appalachian Reading Center, Inc. is not supported by government programs. Scholarships are available to those who are unable to afford services. These scholarships are created by fund raising and generous donors who believe in the mission of the Center.

The purpose of the Friends of the Appalachian Reading Center is to support the mission and vision of the Center through advocacy, assisting with events, volunteerism, fund raising, and public relations.

We appreciate the support of our FRIENDS.
